First Bulletin; Preparation for Union Negotiations

Dear Members,

We are pleased to announce that your elected Negotiations Committee met for the first time during the week of September 28, 2026, at the IAM William W. Winpisinger Education & Technology Center. The committee members participated in the Negotiation Preparation Training Program.

This training session marked the beginning of the Committee's preparations for the upcoming round of negotiations. The Committee discussed its objectives, reviewed the results of the bargaining survey, and began developing strategies to effectively represent the best interests of our membership at the bargaining table.

The Committee is committed to advancing the interests and priorities of our members throughout the negotiation process. We thank all members who participated in the bargaining survey. Your feedback will help guide our efforts at the negotiating table and ensure that the concerns and priorities of the membership are reflected in our bargaining objectives.

We encourage you to stay engaged and informed as we move forward. Regular updates will be provided throughout the process, and we remain dedicated to securing a fair and strong collective agreement for all members.

In solidarity, The Negotiation Committee
